

THE BEAT GOES ON!

Are you a former UCLA student who plays a band instrument?
Join the UCLA Alumni Band and keep the good times rolling.

You've probably heard the UCLA Alumni Band playing during one of their two-hour concerts for tailgaters before every home game at the Rose Bowl. Or maybe you've heard them at one of the Women's Gymnastics meets in Pauley Pavilion.

You've also seen them performing at many other places such as football scrimmages, community events and the UCLA Athletic Department's annual True Blue Celebration. The UCLA Alumni Band even participated in the Shanghai Tourism Festival in China in September 2008, representing UCLA and the state of California.

Now it's your turn to join in and play your favorite Bruin fight songs and other popular tunes. The UCLA Alumni Band can always use more former students who play band instruments. Don't worry if you're a bit rusty or haven't practiced in a while; you'll catch up quickly. And you can attend as many or as few events as you choose.

As a participating member of the UCLA Alumni Band, you and your guest will enjoy sitting in the band's specially-reserved section in the Rose Bowl at all home games.

Want to see what it's all about? Come and enjoy the UCLA Alumni Band's traditional pregame tailgate concert, held in Lot H at the south end of the Rose Bowl, starting three hours before every home football game. Enjoy performances by the UCLA Spirit Squad, an appearance by the UCLA football team, and lots of great music. It's a great way to start your day at the Rose Bowl — and you can be a part of it!
